HEY THERE, LEGACY-MINDED LEADER!

Thank you for using Black Girl College Prep's free college resources!

These resources will help you and your family maintain organization throughout your college search and experience.

Remember that the greater your level of organization, the easier this process will be.

This organizer helps you add and keep all the colleges you're interested in together to have a quick reference point for what's needed to get in.

If you prefer a spreadsheet, please download it from the BGCP website here.

Lastly, follow us on socials @blackgirlcollegeprep and grab your copy of College Bound: A Black Girl's Guide: Everything You Need to Know Before Starting College.
